

ATLAS DUNNAGE QUALITY POLICY

We aim to increase our communication quality, continuously improve our processes, develop a quality culture at all levels of the organization, and offer innovative and competitive products and services in order to continuously meet the needs and expectations of our customers and all relevant stakeholders.

In accordance with this purpose, we undertake the below principles;

- Make the necessary resource planning to meet the requirements of quality management systems
- Continuous improvement by measuring customer-oriented work and customer satisfaction
- To increase the quality awareness of all our employees and stakeholders in order to achieve operational excellence in our processes
- To be the pioneer of change in the sector with innovation and R&D practices
- To follow the National and International legal requirements regarding our products, to make appropriate production
- Evaluating risks and opportunities, continuously improving our performance with a preventive approach

GENERAL MANAGER